

David Napper

Asset Protection and Investigations Manager for the Asia Pacific Region, eBay

2003 - Commenced duties at eBay in March as a Senior Trust and Safety Specialist specialising in engaging community members and providing strategies to ensure the eBay site remained safe for users.

2005 - Progressed to Law Enforcement Relationships Manager for Australia and New Zealand during which time conducted numerous training courses for Law Enforcement and Government regulators in Australia and New Zealand.

2008 – Awarded the National Quarantine Award for Government & Business collaboration.

2009 – Completed Hong Kong Police Cyber Crime Investigations course.

January 2010 - appointed Asset Protection and Investigations Manager for the Asia Pacific Region encompassing all countries within Oceania, Pacific Islands, Asia, Middle East, Africa and the Sub-Continent.

Have trained/educated law enforcement and other regulators in international jurisdictions including Singapore, Hong Kong, China, Japan, South Africa, Nigeria, New Zealand, England, Ireland, France and Germany.

Background in Cyber Crime Investigations, telecommunications, electronics, banking/credit card fraud and law enforcement.

